Budget for 2020-2021 - Waiting for Foundation to approve the Council budget – if they request any changes then this will be readdressed

Workshops and County Guidelines – make sure that as you plan your workshops that the county health department guidelines are followed, encourage youth and adults alike so we are able to continue providing opportunities for our youth. Any gatherings of 50 to 250 need to fill out the Public Health Event Planning Form, and expect a month for the review process, which may need to be revised and resubmitted.

Fall Training was done virtually – and there will be monthly virtual activities offered on Montana 4H website

Cade Duran, Megan Goroski, and Claire Downing are one of sixteen teams doing a national community service project – Backpacks for Foster Kids – collecting items to build backpacks of necessities to provide to local foster youth – reached out to Clubs with a challenge to provide tie blankets – winning club gets a pizza party – have been reaching out to businesses for donations

Babysitting has a new curriculum that will be working with this year. Should be able to complete in a weekend.

Next Meeting:
