

Indoor Committee Meeting

November 15, 2023

BHB @ 5:30pm

Items of Business:

Attendance: Alyssa White, Emily Scruggs, Joseph Dunn, Guy Rainville, Rob Pentecost, Tracy Bailey, Rachel Carroll Rivas, Jessica Kinyon, Michaela Stewart, JoEllen Wood, Meg White

Reports:

- Extension Office- encouraged to use project books/ looking at holding project leader workshop since the club leader workshop went so well/ Each project leader needs to keep track of their own inventory/ there is a copy in the office.
- 4-H Council
  - BHB re-keyed- can check out at the office or with Indoor or outdoor superintendent
  - 4-H Fair Theme decided by Youth Council: 4-H: Building Success- Alyssa shared the youth were thinking, construction type decorations, signs, cones, hard hats, etc.
  - Thank you cards for ALL sale items (Indoor & Outdoor) to be handed in when picking up checks from Extension Office- add ons are included in this the extension office will have blank cards for youth to fill out if they need them.
  - Clean out of BHB storage: tentatively on a Saturday in May
  - Lights & Fan in BHB East, looking into doing it for BHB West also- Rob Pentecost is working on securing bids for the work, should have those by December 2023.
  - Water fountain has been purchased & will be installed
- Superintendents
  - Michaela Stewart- Monday the 20th have a clover buds project with visual arts and teen leaders are coming to be involved. Started planning December already decorating cookies. Some discussion about whether the clover buds will be showing livestock for fair. At this point, not an option for this year.
  - Emily shared for Many Rambo for Foods and Nutrition- getting started on planning for stirrups and grand foods. Secured a location at East Valley Middle school. They have 6 ranges available for the event. Feb. 10th is the date of both events.
  - Jessica Kinyon for Gardening- had their November meeting, planted tulips and played garden bingo.
  - Rachel Carroll Rivas- Sewing, Had 5 kids at their last meeting, her expectations as a new superintendent is that those involved in the project will attend at least some of the projects. Will bring in a crochet expert in the future, since there is interest in that area. December meeting will be at the Holter for the art quilts display, has plans for projects throughout the year like hot shots parachutes sewn etc, Sewing Bees, the sewing Review will be in April, and looking at finding ways to entice others into the project ( maybe a styling aspect). Rented 4 of the 5 sewing machines out at the first meeting. She has 1 that doesn't work and one that's being repaired.
  - Rob Pentecost- co super for woodworking, waiting to meet with the super to plan some things.
  - Tracy Bailey- no news
  - Guy Rainville- no news
  - Luke Duran- holding first photography meeting the 16th of Nov. orientation and new challenge for photography kids this year. Will have some updates to the fair exhibit guides, Holter Photo Show will be May 16th - June 2nd 2024. Will feature a professional food artist at one of the projects this year.

Old Business:

- Inventory sheets needed for all indoor projects
- Indoor Fair Location – BHB or Main Fairgrounds Building (vote)- great discussion- it was voted and approved to move the indoor displays to the Expo Building. Emily Mentioned that the out door committee mentioned an interest in having the livestock posters hung in the BHB during fair week. There was discussion about silent auctions possibly donated per club/ club displays. A dance in the BHB since that space will be opened
- Club & Project informational display/poster at 4-H Fair
- Clean out of BHB storage: tentatively on a Saturday in May

New Business:

* Toys for Tots discussion on use/rent Indoor Fair Display tables and/shelves- a motion was made for them to be able to use the tables and shelves for no cost, just a $100 refundable deposit. We talked through the rent agreement for the tables and shelves and set a value of $300 per table or shelf. Motion was made and approved.

- Fair Exhibitor Handbook Review
  - Look through your section and make changes with strike through – email updates back to Lexi – DUE BY JANUARY 8
